Yass! New Broad City coming soon to Foxtel

Thursdays from September 14 at 8.30pm
on The Comedy Channel or stream on Foxtel Now

Broad City promises to keep pushing boundaries with its fourth season set to premiere on The Comedy Channel on September 14, Thursdays at 8.30pm AEST, or stream on Foxtel Now.

The hit series revolves around two friends as they navigate their way through life in New York City, making the smallest and mundane events hysterical and disturbing to watch.

Abbi Jacobson and Ilana Glazer are the lead actors and creative geniuses behind this entertaining and outrageous comedy. Broad City began with the pair launching a web series in 2010 inspired by their real life friendship and experiences. The web series evolved into a television show which premiered in 2014, with actress and director Amy Poehler (Saturday Night Live, Parks and Recreation) on board as one of the executive producers across the first three seasons.

Broad City has already featured many guest stars including Fred Armisen, Rachel Dratch, Seth Green, Tony Danza, Alan Alda, Cynthia Nixon and Hillary Clinton.

The guest list for season four includes Ru Paul, Steve Buscemi, Wanda Sykes, Jane Curtin and Shania Twain.

Broad City S4 will be express from the US and first on Foxtel for Australian audiences. Episodes will be available to watch from Foxtel's on demand library, or streamed on demand on Foxtel's streaming service, Foxtel Now, for 28 days after first broadcast.
